

ACTIVITIES

The rotation of students is proving a challenge as everyone both wants to try each of the projects but is loathe to leave

In any event we are trying to keep week-ends free either for gathering at the house in Taroudant (for the use of European bathrooms (!) as well as exchanging news and experiences) or elsewhere such as the Atlantic coast where we also have the use of a small house. It makes a good base for fishing, surfing and swimming. We do e

The CARITAS School

This placement is with Mr Lahcen Baddi who is paid system of farming work together. Our two students there are David Salisbury and Paul McConnell, who are living

